PART – A

The plan of action chalked out by IQAC in the beginning of the year towards quality enhancement:

Mahatma Gandhi Memorial College got recredited with B grade on 4 point scale in 2010 by NAAC Accreditation Board. According to the Peer team – “Mahatma Gandhi Memorial College, Udupi conveys an optimistic message of how a growth oriented educational Institution can bring about rapid transformation of an extremely backward rural area through a dynamic process of education and cultural activities cherishing and cultivating a chain of academic institutions of different hues, but serving the basic cause of educating minds, is indeed rare among Indian Affiliated Colleges”.

The Vision & Mission statements of the college and the encouraging words of Peer team have made the IQAC members of the college to chalk-out a detailed plan of action for the academic year under report.

IQAC requested teachers to increase their participation in various forums, which directly or indirectly involve in the designing and updating of the curriculum. As far as the student support and progression is concerned, besides strengthening Parent Teacher Association and Alumni Association, IQAC felt that students should be made employable through career counseling and placement assistance. Likewise it was decided to improve the organization by obtaining student feedback regarding the teaching staff of the college.

IQAC decided to take following steps for the quality enhancement among students:

- Conducting periodical tests, seminars for the Students.
- Taking Students to the Industries to have interaction.
- Arranging students’ visit to the Courts, Zilla Panchayat and other Local Government offices.

- To arrange remedial courses to the needy students.
- Conducting study tours to the students.
- To arrange career workshops to expose the students for career opportunities.
- To organize workshops to enable the students to face interview and participate in the group discussions.
- To organize quiz programmes for the improvement of General knowledge of students.
- To organize special coaching camps for various sports and games.
- To motivate students to participate in workshops / seminars in other colleges.

For quality enhancement of teachers, IQAC decided to encourage the teachers....

- To participate in Seminars, Workshops and Symposia.
- To present papers in Seminars, Workshops and Symposia.
- To conduct minor/major research projects with the help of ICSSR, UGC, NAAC and other Agencies.
- To publish articles in Journals and Newspapers.
- To participate in Orientation Programmes and Refresher Courses.
- To write and publish text books.

ANNEXURE – 12

The details of the healthy practices of the Institution are as follows:

- The members of the staff submit self appraisal report every year to the management and the Joint Director of Collegiate Education. The confidential reports of The Principal submitted to the management help to maintain the required standard and discipline.
- The Principal and the heads of the Departments will monitor the work done by the Staff members written in ‘Work Diary’.
- The academic performance of the students is checked by adopting the following mechanism:

The Staff members will play the role of Academic Advisors of the students. The students of each class are divided into small groups of twenty or twenty five. The over all academic performance, character, discipline and participation in co-curricular activities of these groups are supervised by the concerned Academic Advisors. The cumulative record is the document maintained by the Academic Advisor. This document is signed by the Academic Advisors and forwarded to Parents/Guardian/Warden to appraise them of the students’ performance.

- Two tests are conducted to equip the students for the University Semester Examinations and also for the calculation of Internal Assessment marks. Proficiency prizes are awarded on the basis of these examinations and this helps the students to perform better in Final Examinations.
- Parent – Teacher meet is organized twice a year in order to provide an open platform for free and healthy interaction.
- The Staff Council consisting of Heads of Departments helps the Principal to take decisions regarding academic matters, examinations, co-curricular activities etc.
- The HRD and TQM Cell conduct Personality Development Programmes on every Saturday afternoons. The other programmes conducted includes Public Speaking courses, confidence building exercises, mind skill exercises and leadership development programmes.

A dissemination programme was held by the RRC team for the residents of Yenagudde, Katapadi, the children of the neighboring schools and the members of the NSS wings of MGM College. The screening of RRC holdings was well received by the spectators.

YAKSHAGANA KENDRA :

With a change in the pattern of offering training, the Yakshagana Kendra has adopted the policy of allowing students of Yakshagana to pursue formal schooling during the normal working hours of schools and utilizing morning and evening hours for teaching Yakshagana in the Kendra. It is hoped that this would give them the option of either going to professional Yakshagana troupes if they so desire, or taking up other occupations and continuing with Yakshagana as hobby artistes. During 2010-2011, 20 students have been admitted for Yakshagana training. 7 of them attend the Pre-University Course, 2 are attending a job oriented ITI Course, 8 are attending High school and two are going to secondary schools. The expenses of their school education are met by the Kendra through donations received from philanthropists. Regular sessions of Yakshagana dance training are going on in the Kendra.

The following special programmes were held during the period:

On the recommendations of Dr Mohan Alva of Moodabidre, Sri M Ramachandra Hegde, leader of the Kannadiga Society in Singapore invited the members of the Yaksharanga Kendra, to give performances during the Karnataka Vaibhava festival from 13th to 19th April 2010. Three episodes Jambavati Kalyana, Hidimba Vivaha and Jatayu Moksha were presented by members of kendra during the festival. Director of the troupe Sri Sanjeeva Suvarna was honoured with the title 'Yakshakala Rathna'

From May 28 to June 1, 2010 Yaksharanga participated in the '5 day Theatre Workshop' held under the auspices of Shivakumar Theatre in Sanehalli, Chitradurga District. The workshop was inaugurated by Sri A V Prasanna, Director of NSD. His Holiness Sri Shivakumara Swamiji graced the occasion. Sri G K Govind Rao, Chidambara Rao Jambe and Tripurari Sharma spoke at the inaugural session. Artistes of Yaksharanga Kendra demonstrated a variety of Yakshagana dances under the Direction of Guru Sri Sanjeeva Suvarna. A Yakshagana performance of Yakshothama Kalaga was presented on the stage.

The next tour of the artistes was in Mumbai from 4th to 16th June 2010. They presented 10 shows under the auspices of different organizations which were co-ordinated by Kannada Kala Kendra as part of 'Yakshotsava'. They had the distinction of offering training to 25 art-enthusiasts for five days and getting them to present a show at the end of the period.

In a demonstration programme that was held in the course of the 2 day Prasanga Workshop on 3rd and 4th July 2010 at MGM College Udupi under the auspices of Yakshagana Academy, the artistes of Yakshagana Kendra gave a demonstration of Yakshagana songs and dances in new Ragas and Talas as requested by the great scholar of Yakshagana Dr. S. Narayana Shetty.

Yaksharanga had a unique opportunity to present two Yakshagana performances on the occasion of 500th coronation Day of Krishna Deva Raya in Hyderabad held under the joint auspices of Govt. of Andrapradesh, State Dept. of Culture and Tirumala Devasthanam. President of India Smt. Prathibha Devi Patil, Governor of Andhrapradesh Sri ESL Narasimhan, Sri K Rosaiah, Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh, Dr J. Geeta Reddy, Minister of I & PR were among the distinguished guests.

The Kendra has brought out a critical work on Yakshagana poets and their life written by Dr. Kabbinala Vasanth Bharadwaj.

A dramatic work on Bhishma's last days written by Dr Bhaskarananda Kumar, one of the members of the Executive Committee of Yakshagana Kendra, has been prescribed as a text book by Mangalore University for the students of the Degree classes. As per the request of Dr. Bhaskaranda Kumar the Kendra has taken up the publication of the 2nd edition of the book.

Dr. Vasudeva Aithal, an NRI from the USA has donated a sum of Rs. 30,000/- to Yakshagana Kendra to meet the expenses of the children who attend schools along with getting comprehensive training in Yakshagana dance and music in the Kendra.

The Yaksharanga troupe of the Kendra participated in the World Festival held at Dublin, Ireland in July. The programme was sponsored by the ICCR New Delhi. Sri Ramesh Bhat, Second Secretary of the Embassy was our old student and took special care of the troupe and our performances were viewed by many. There was a special programme for the media people to record and publicize the programme. It was a new experience to our artistes to give a live show that too on the beach.

Department of Culture, New Delhi has sanctioned an additional grant for conducting a workshop on the traditional theatres of the South Akin to Yakshagana.

The Yaksharanga was invited to participate in the Poorvottara Natya Samaroha in Assam- Ban theatre in Tejpur and Ravindranath Tagore theatre in Guwahathi. Guru Sanjeeva Suvarna was recognized as one of the best theatre/art directors of the festival. Yaksharanga was highly appreciated for its team work, excellent dance, make-up and costumes.

Guru Sri Sanjeeva Suvarna was awarded the 'Rajyotsava Award 2010' on 1st Nov 2010 at Ravindra Kalakshethra, Bangalore.

'Desi Utsava' was celebrated in Feb 2011 in collaboration with RRC and folk art organizations from Kerala.
